Followers of 'Flat Cap Stanley' will not be disappointed by this latest adventure in the life of their hero. Stanley is thwarted in his ambition to see his local football team play the mighty 'Spurs' in the Cup, but manages to get involved in the action in A BIG WAY! Looking familiarly bemused, Stanley staggers from frame to comic frame, emerging as hero of the hour in homely Huddersgate Albion's humbling of the Big Timers. Then he trots home to Grandma's tea of 'Fish, chips and peas --- nice and hot'. Quite brilliant! And yet another demonstration that 'picture books' go right up the age range.
